

Private Sessions With Diana Gazes and the Lighteam

The three sessions offered are:

Deep Clearing and Cellular Healing Sessions

Spheres of Love Sessions

DNA Activation and Repatterning Sessions

The sessions and Evening Events are designed to support people in gracefully moving through the great acceleration now occurring on Earth. Truly, each session is unique and much more happens than could possibly be written about or expressed. I am always amazed, deeply touched and honored to serve in this way.

The level of divine love, caring and grace that fills the room is exquisite, deeply nurturing and truly feeds the soul and always works towards the ascension process which is full mastery in form and activation of their Original Divine Blueprint.

With each successive private or group session a person has, the clearer the flow opens to his or her Authentic and Empowered Self. Each session a person has is like peeling away another layer of an onion ... Each session clears deeper levels, revealing and activating more of their Divine Gifts and Mastery.

What All Sessions Have In Common

As we begin, a great portal of light opens and fills the room and surrounding areas, even if the person or group are thousands of miles away in a phone session. As I invite the Ascended Masters, Archangels, Divine Mothers, Star Councils of Light & Love and the person's own guides and God Presence to join us, a very tangible, multi-dimensional, high frequency quantum "Field of Possibility" is formed around the person or group.

People often have a very direct experience of the Master Beings and energies in the room. As an example, I often hear people say their head or arm was touched by an Angel or felt hands working through their brain or other organs needing assistance or even receiving chiropractic.

All decisions on how much is cleared, activated, or which activations and initiations are received are always decided by your higher Self, the inner plane Masters and your own personal Guides, I fully open and hold the field expanded as I am guided moment by moment by highly skilled and loving beings as to what are the highest options for the person at that moment.

Deep Clearing & Healing Sessions

This is often the first session recommended on the inner planes. It is very deep and comprehensive work. Many incarnations of old consciousness is cleared away. Healing on all levels, physical, Emotional, Mental and Spiritual are worked with. Clearing of old, often-ancient energies of fear, grief, and abandonment issues held frozen on sub-atomic levels for centuries often get lifted.

Old cording, entity attachments, and implants rapidly get released. Energetic pathways are opened and cleared for the meridians, chakras and organs. Environmental pollutants are cleared from the physical and subtle light bodies. Deep heart clearing opens the way for loving new relationships.

When people are unplugged from the collective consciousness planetary grid of fear and victim consciousness they feel a great freedom, joy and lightness. Life is embraced with great hope and enthusiasm again. People have expressed seeing themselves in spirit hospitals or psychic surgery occurs in the subtle realms when more serious physical conditions are being healed. Higher physical energy, mental clarity, more creativity, expanded consciousness and rejuvenation often occur from the great inflow of light from spirit.

DNA Activation and Repatterning Sessions

Returning to Your "Blueprint of Perfection"

DNA Activations returns a person to their "Blueprint of Perfection." This is a beautiful healing modality that comes from the higher realms as a "Gift of Grace" to assist us in activating our latent or what science calls "junk" strands of DNA.

It is now possible to activate many more than the two strands most people have currently activated for accelerating conscious evolution. Each of the strands activated carries great gifts and abilities, helping us to step into our true authentic self. We also activate the Youth & Vitality Chromosome, which slows or reverses the ageing process. Strands currently activated are regenerated and returned to a more perfected Genetic levels from our parents going back many generations are cleared of physical, mental or emotional negative energies. Clearing of old limiting patterns and disease signatures allows your true essence to shine forth.

Benefits: People are experiencing such effects as heightened perception and intuition, expanded use of brain, release of toxic metals, environmental pollutants and increased health, often looking and feeling rejuvenated.

They get "switched-on" like a light bulb to the vast potential they process. The sessions open a clear path to their next step. The mental clarity and higher physical energy people experience supports the necessary action needed to follow their vision.

"Since receiving a DNA Activation, I have been symptom free of Lupus for the last three years" Deneen P., Teacher, No. California

"I have never felt so directly connected to my own inner guidance and the higher realms. I now know I am never alone. Fear of world events has left me."
Stefanie L., Artist. New York

Spheres Of Love Sessions

The Spheres of Love is a healing modality that is new to the Earth.

The love Spheres have the ability to unite all aspects of our being as well as to connect us to the unified field of love surrounding the Earth. In a session, we open a persons' own spheres of love around their physical and subtle bodies. Once activated, a persons' consciousness is easily able to expand and connect to the oneness of the unified field as well as their next step.

During a session, I open specific gateways to the different areas of Earth, Galactic and Universal realms where the Spheres reside. I then call for the Councils of the Spheres of Love to assist in a project, group or personal healing or clearing activation. Different locations of the Spheres of Love carry different healing qualities and abilities specific to the needs of your human, multi-dimensional selves or soul extensions.

Some Examples:

1. If you are an architect or writer, and you feel your creative flow is blocked, in your session I would open the gateway to Venus and call in the Councils from Venus. They would deal specifically with creativity matters and work with those aspects of yourself or your soul extensions that feel they cannot create, write, draw etc. They would assist in lifting whatever old limiting thought forms necessary to open your natural creative abilities to flow with ease. They would also be called in to assist you in bringing through original creation on a specific project.
2. I would call in the Council of Sirius for mind or brain issues ... for shifting old limiting patterns of thinking or depression, to have the mind expand to larger perspectives, or to activate the brain to optimal levels of functionality.

To experience the Love Spheres is to experience the inter-connectedness of Self with Source and infinite planes of co-creator aspects of one's being, forged into a new community of support and expressiveness.

Benefits include increased self-esteem, self-love and acceptance, a unifying experience from separation to oneness, expansion of consciousness, enhancement of creativity, upliftment, healing, and relaxing into the truth of infinite unfolding in Grace.

“Diana created a sacred space that took me very deep and helped me prioritize and clarify the many directions I had been pondering. When Diana called in her guides the room filled with many beautiful light beings and Masters. I saw the book I had wanted to write and I was given the title. Everything came together effortlessly. When I left I knew I had aligned with my true self again. I highly recommend her.” With Blessings, Ann Muldoon (Parashari), Vedic Astrologer and Consultant, Nevada City, CA

“Diana is like a Web Master connecting people to the “Inner-Net”. The energy sessions rapidly awakened my inner sight; direct connection to my master guides and a new self-confidence emerged, which I feel accounts for my new creativity and business success.” Marsha Emanuel, Advertising Consultant, FL

In December 2004 I sent a call out to the Universe to find me a being of light with a big heart to facilitate my complete healing with regard to accumulated scar tissue in my brain from several brain tumors which left me dysfunctional and withdrawn from the world. After several sessions I am now starting to become the dreamer and the doer as a foreign currency trader and global market forecaster with confidence and assurance knowing that I have exceeded my original capabilities.

My heartfelt appreciation to Diana and The Lightteam for the gift of a new life.
RaQuael Questar Langford, IB and Globex Currency Trader
